TBI Resource Foundation

TBI Resource Foundation is a California non-profit corporation. It is applying for its tax-exempt status under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Once TBI Resource Foundation has secured its tax-exempt status, TBI Resource Foundation will provide support and services to living with traumatic brain injury ("TBI").

Operation

Once the Foundation has secured its tax exempt status, it will seek supporters to assist in its efforts to provide support and services:

Foundation Endorsement Supporter

Supporter grants TBI Resource Foundation the rights to use Supporter's name and photo / logo (as provided/approved by Supporter) for TBI Resource Foundation.

Foundation Fundraiser

Supporter will assist the foundation in fundraising activities. However, Supporter fundraising is voluntary, and supporter does not accept any fees or portion of the donations made to TBI Resource Foundation. Professional fundraisers are subject to significant local, state and federal regulations.

Foundation Advisory Board

The TBI Resource advisory board ("TBIR Advisory Board") consist of professionals who work in the field of TBI. They are invited to join the TBIR Advisory Board by the board of directors of TBIRResource and are ratified by majority votes of the members of TBIRResource and TBIR Advisory Board. The TBIR Advisory Board meets (by teleconference) once a quarter, and annually elect a chair. Matters are decided are decided by majority vote of a quorum of one half of ratified TBIR Advisory Board members. The TBIR Advisory Board sets guidelines for the awarding of TBIRResource MicroGrants (<$1,000.00), awarding of major grants (>$1,000.00), and guidelines for TBI resources and support provided by TBIRResource, and other related matters. TBIR Advisory Board members appear in the TBIRResource website, and marketing collateral.

Foundation Member

Supporter may apply to become a member of TBI Resource Foundation, subject to the approval of the board of directors.

Attached is the TBI Resource Foundation Support Agreement.

TBI Resource Foundation Founders

Tamara Walter, Executive Director

Special education teacher, TBI survivor

Tamara grew up in Buffalo, New York (go Bills and Sabres!). Her father was a physician and her mother was a 1st grade teacher. She always wanted to teach. She discovered during her freshman year in college that she had multiple learning disabilities, ADHD and an anxiety disorder. There were those who told her that she wouldn't go far or graduate from college. With perseverance and determination, she not only graduated, but went on to get her master's degree in special education.

Bradley Perkins, Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary

Corporate, IP & non-profit lawyer

Core values:

- Equality, diversity, inclusion, and empathy – informs decisions and actions both within and outside organizations.
- Customer / guest service and hospitality – based on Disney Institute model, within organizations, everyone has “customers.”
- Staff support, recognition, and development – leading by example, organizations are only as strong as their staff.

Brad has availed himself of opportunities to work with both for-profit and non-profit organizations, both professionally and by volunteering his time, efforts, and resources. With degrees in both law and engineering, and licensed to practice law in California, Hawaii and before the United States Patent and Trademark Office, Brad has extensive experience in corporate and non-profit organizations. Brad has managed attorneys, engineers, and other professionals and non-professionals in legal; engineering; human resources; marketing; public relations; environmental, health and safety; security; IT departments, and organizations as a whole. In addition to being a registered patent attorney, Brad has significant experience in copyright, trademark and entertainment law, employment law, non-profit, corporate and securities law, and contract and licensing law. (resume attached).
